Short summary of idea*

CSV uploads for groups of questions

Application/Area

Infocapture

Description

It would be very helpful if you could upload groups and questions into those groups from excel instead of manually creating each group in the program and then manually moving them into the groups. I would also be very helpful if I could select multiple questions with out clicking each question. Like a drag to highlight and all those highlighted would be selected and then move them into the proper group.
