InfoCapture custom messages

Custom messages are used to change the default phrasing within the project.

For example, I may wish for my 'Quote Requests' project to use the term 'quote request' instead of 'ticket'.

Custom messages can be implemented from Admin > Infocapture > Your Project > Custom Messages

These will appear in the corresponding places within the project:

Reminder: If your changes do not appear straight away, delete the site cache and check again.

Recommended next article:
Thank You page

Created on 13 August 2018 by Hannah Door. Last modified on 30 November 2023

Tags: custom, infocapture, localisation, user guide, message